

The SPOKESWOMAN

January 2012

Volume 48, No. 1

Mission Statement: AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research.

CELEBRATE THE 19TH

We'll be meeting at the Hunan restaurant across from the Pence Gallery on 3rd Street at 5:30 pm on the 19th. Family and friends are welcome. Each person pays her own check (by cash or check- no credit cards). Share your time and conversation in a relaxed atmosphere. Please RSVP to Dorothy, who arranged this gathering, by the 16th.

Are there any volunteers for February or March? Email or call Juliana.

DECEMBER 18th REPORT

The holiday gathering took place at Juliana's, since Sheri Hosking was ill. Marti brought mugs and tea along with her lemon cluster cookies and helped set everything up. Many different kinds of treats were brought. Some of the recipes will be posted separately. We were fortunate to have good weather and a good time. Present were Rhonda, Elaine, Marj, Eleanor, Shirley, Ramona and son, Liam, Emily, Carol, Gail, Dorothy and Chithra.

Gail was pleased to announce that the funds for this year's (2012) two Tech Trek girls were achieved. Any money further will be for 2013, with hopes to increase the number of girls we can send.

Juliana showed the quilt raffle posters and encouraged people to volunteer to find places to display them.

The next day, Juliana took the donations to Yolo Crisis Nursery. The picture shows what we gave.

TIME FOR NOMINATIONS

It is time to volunteer for positions on the AAUW-Davis Board. The meetings are fewer than once a month. The decisions are important, but not overwhelming. Members are needed to participate in keeping projects going and helping to keep the branch vital and directed.
